12 state agencies to come together for the South Carolina Health Care Virtual Career Fair Feb. 2

Columbia, S.C. – Health care professionals are invited to take part in the South Carolina Health Care Virtual Career Fair hosted by the South Carolina Department of Administration. Twelve state agencies will offer virtual career booths during the event, which runs 10 a.m.–1 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 2, 2022.

The virtual career fair, the third hosted by the state of South Carolina since May 2021, provides health care professionals a chance to explore a wide range of opportunities within state government. Some of the many benefits of a state government career are the ability to achieve work-life balance, as well as 15 paid annual leave days and 15 paid sick days each year.

Some of the open positions participating agencies are hiring for include:

- Chemists
- Health Educators
- Licensed Practical Nurses
- Microbiologists
- Nursing Assistants
- Physical and Occupational Therapists
- Registered Nurses
- Speech and Hearing Therapists

During the fair, job seekers can take part in a video chat or set a time to talk directly with a human resources representative about available openings. Some of the participating agencies include:

- South Carolina Department of Corrections
- South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control
- South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice
- South Carolina Department of Mental Health
- Greenville, Midlands, Northeastern and Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical Colleges
